The Braes

To prevent any misunderstanding, it is useful to have a form of contract. In the unlikely event that disagreements arise between parties, we would therefore advise you of the following conditions before you continue your function preparations.

We can hold a provisional booking for 7 days without obligation. This booking will automatically be released after 7 days if no confirmation is made, or no deposit handed in.

Reservations can only be confirmed upon payment of a non-refundable deposit of £_____ and a signed copy of these terms and conditions; by signing these Terms and Conditions you are agreeing that this is a legally binding document.

Final details with anticipated numbers are required 4 weeks before the date of the event.

The remaining balance is due 2 weeks prior to the event.

The organiser is liable for the actions of their guests and for any damage caused to the building, fixtures and fittings.

We also have corkage charges for any alcohol consumed on the premises that has not been purchased from The Braes. The organiser is also liable for these charges.

Cancellation within 2 weeks of the booked date is liable to payment of the full balance and any outstanding charges.

We may have to make changes due to unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which neither our suppliers, nor we could avoid such as natural disaster, fire or adverse weather conditions.
